

Seeing a Cub Scout with lots of badges on their uniform and commenting "Wow, you've got a lot of badges"

Badge focus

Oh, I see you've completed your Milestone 3 – "What was one of your leads and how did that challenge you?"

Achievement focus

Having a conversation with a youth member about their past 12 months in Scouting

Achievement focus

Giving Outdoor Adventure Skills Stage 4 Camping to everyone in the Unit after a camp without any Review>

Badge focus

Building the Unit program around Special Interest Areas and Outdoor Adventure Skills every week.

Badge focus

Running a badgework night.

Badge focus

Telling everyone in the Unit that they should be working towards their peak award.

Badge focus

Having everyone progress through their Milestones.

Achievement focus

Getting to the end of the program cycle and handing out Milestones.

Badge focus

Presenting a Special Interest Area and focusing comments on how much hard work it was and how many hours they spent on doing it.

Badge focus

Presenting an Outdoor Adventure Skill and asking the Venturer Scout to share what the most exciting aspect of the project was.

Achievement focus

Presenting a Special Interest Area and asking the Cub Scout to share one of the goals that didn't turn out the way they expected.

Achievement focus

Commenting on the Australian Scout Award being an individual Scout's biggest achievement.

Badge focus

Celebrating a Scout tying their shoelaces for the first time

Achievement focus